Frequently Asked Questions

1. Is there a level test?

Yes, every student (except complete beginners) is evaluated as part of their first lesson to check that they are in the right class.

2. Are the teachers qualified?

All our teachers have the required teaching diplomas (CELTA/DELTA/PGCE) and they participate in continued professional development throughout the year.

3. Are the students given homework?

Yes, it's important that the students continue their learning throughout the week. Normally they are given 30 minutes to an hour of work per week.

4. How is progress measured?

We assess the children's progress throughout the year with two tests before the Christmas and summer holidays. The results are given out in January and in June.

5. How are the results communicated?

Parents receive a report via email with general comments and marks to demonstrate their child's progress in the four different skills (reading, writing, listening, speaking).

6. Is there a parents' evening?

Yes, at the start of the year parents are invited for an informative evening to learn more about our objectives and to ask any questions about the programme. In January and June, we invite parents to have a short individual meeting with the teacher.

7. My child is a complete beginner. Can he still participate?

Yes, absolutely. We offer specific classes for beginners.

8. Is the enrollment for the whole year?

Yes, it is important for the children's progression and their pleasure and implication in the English language learning.
